In consideration of a purchase price of US$ _____, of which 10% (percent) is a nonrefundable deposit, the Seller transfers in fee simple all rights, privileges, and responsibilities associated with the ownership of the Male  Female puppy of the Bernese Mountain Dog Breed, as identified by its American Kennel Club (AKC) registration # _____, and its microchip # _____, to the Purchaser as of the date and time the Purchaser took possession.

Additionally, on behalf of the Purchaser, the Seller will both enroll the puppy into the lifetime AKC Reunite microchip program and transfer the puppy’s registration number into the AKC registry. This basic registration will include the type as listed as one of the following:

- Limited Registration = The dog cannot produce AKC registrable litters. In addition, a limited dog cannot compete in conformation shows. It is eligible, however, to participate in any other licensed or member AKC events including Obedience, Tracking, Field Trials, Hunting Tests, Herding, Lure Coursing, Agility, Rally, and Earthdog. (This registration is commonly referred to as pet and/or companion quality.)
- Full Registration = The dog can produce AKC registrable litters and can compete in conformation shows. (This registration is commonly referred to as breeding and/or show quality.)

Still, the puppy’s name must be chosen in order to complete the transfer process. The name is not to exceed 36 spaces total and is subject to AKC approval and must comply with AKC requirements. If a full registration type is listed above, the puppy’s name will include the suffix “of Ninevehbmd.com” as part of the 36 spaces.
